11 Answers to Questions About the End Times ~ Dr. David Jeremiah (Continued from Last Month)

11. Will God Destroy the Earth?

Pop culture leads us to believe that one day a giant explosion will destroy the earth. But God is not going to destroy the planet, He is going to purify it.

Second Peter 3:10-12 says, "But the day of the Lord will come as a thief in the night, in which the heavens will pass away with a great noise, and the elements will melt with fervent heat; both the earth and the works that are in it will be burned up.... The heavens will be dissolved, being on fire, and the elements will melt with fervent heat."

It's understandable how this passage can lead some to believe in the apocalyptic explosion theory. But when we look at the original Greek, the word translated "burned up" more accurately conveys the idea of being uncovered or laid open. God will not burn the earth down to a heap of ashes; He's going to refine every element and atom down to the earth's core. He's going to renovate the earth to a quality we haven't experienced. The beauty we enjoy today is barely a taste of the vibrancy we will experience when God purifies His creation.

Revelation 21:1 says, "Now I saw a new heaven and a new earth, for the first heaven and the first earth had passed away." But God will not create a new earth from scratch like He did in Genesis. He will renovate His creation and remove all the evidence of sin, decay, and disease. The world will not be new in composition but in quality—perfectly refurbished to its core.

Then the New Jerusalem—the city of heaven we hear so much about with streets of gold and pearly gates—that city will come out of the clouds, and there all believers will reside with God for eternity..

Then I, John, saw the holy city, New Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband. And I heard a loud voice from heaven saying, "Behold, the tabernacle of God is with men, and He will dwell with them, and they shall be His people. God Himself will be with them and be their God. And God will wipe away every tear from their eyes; there shall be no more death, nor sorrow, nor crying. There shall be no more pain, for the former things have passed away." Revelation 21:2-4

Jesus appointed His followers to share His teachings with others. Until He returns, we have an urgent responsibility to carry His message to our family, friends, neighbors, nation, and the ends of the earth.
