11 Answers to Questions About the End Times ~ Dr. David Jeremiah (Continued from Last Month)

9. What Is the Difference Between the Rapture and the Second Coming?

This is one of the most common misconceptions about prophecy. The Rapture and the Second Coming are often confused, but they are two different events on God's prophecy timeline.

First, the Rapture will be the day when Christ takes every Christian to heaven with Him, including those who have died. This is the event Paul describes in 1 Thessalonians 4:16-17: "For the Lord Himself will descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of an archangel, and with the trumpet of God. And the dead in Christ will rise first. Then we who are alive and remain shall be caught up together with them in the clouds to meet the Lord in the air. And thus we shall always be with the Lord."

Some argue that the Tribulation period will begin before the Rapture. However, Scripture says, "There is therefore now no condemnation to those who are in Christ Jesus" (Romans 8:1), and I believe the Church will not experience the judgment that God has planned for that time.

I believe the Church will not experience the judgment that God has planned for that time.

At the end of the seven years, Jesus will return, marking the Second Coming. Unlike His first appearance, He will emerge as the victorious King of the universe, surrounded by His saints. He will gain victory at Armageddon and establish His kingdom on earth.

At the Rapture, Jesus comes for His saints. At the Second Coming, He comes with His saints. At the Rapture, Jesus doesn't come to earth. At the Second Coming, His feet touch down on the Mount of Olives, and He will reign on earth. At the Rapture, Jesus comes with a blessing for His saints. At the Second Coming, He brings judgment for those who have rejected Him. The Rapture can happen at any moment, but we know the Second Coming will happen seven years later.

10. Will Today's Believers Be on Earth for the Millennial Kingdom?

Not only will believers today be on earth for the Millennial Kingdom, but they will also rule with Jesus!

After the Tribulation, raptured believers will join Jesus and His armies of angels and return to earth: "The armies of heaven were following him, riding on white horses and dressed in fine linen, white and clean" (Revelation 19:14, NIV). Jesus will gain victory at Armageddon, and believers will receive authority to reign with Him for one thousand years. Several passages in Scripture point the role of believers in the kingdom:

Behold, the Lord comes with ten thousands of His saints, to execute judgment on all, to convict all who are ungodly among them of all their ungodly deeds which they have committed in an ungodly way, and of all the harsh things which ungodly sinners have spoken against Him. Jude 14-15

Do you not know that the saints will judge the world? And if the world will be judged by you, are you unworthy to judge the smallest matters? 1 Corinthians 6:2

And I saw thrones, and they sat on them, and judgment was committed to them. Then I saw the souls of those who had been beheaded for their witness to Jesus and for the word of God, who had not worshiped the beast or his image, and had not received his mark on their foreheads or on their hands. And they lived and reigned with Christ for a thousand years. But the rest of the dead did not live again until the thousand years were finished. This is the first resurrection. Blessed and holy is he who has part in the first resurrection. Over such the second death has no power, but they shall be priests of God and of Christ, and shall reign with Him a thousand years. Revelation 20:4-6

Today's believers are rulers in the making. God is preparing us not only for heaven but also for administering the Millennial Kingdom. During this time, God will establish the first genuinely righteous leadership. As our righteous King, He will never make one mistake—He will always make the right decision.

THANK YOU to everyone who helped make the Blood Drive a success. We surpassed our goal of 23 pints. There were 29 units collected, 3 deferrals & 3 incomplete collections. Thank you to everyone who tried, and donated the gift of life, we had 10 from our church. Thank you to everyone who helped provide the snacks, they were delicious and enjoyed by all. Thank you to all who helped serve and clean up afterwards, your patience was greatly appreciated.

Congratulations!
